In celebration of Women’s History Month, Assembly Majority Leader Ian Calderon is accepting nominations for distinguished women in the 57th Assembly District for the Woman of the Year awards.

Each year, outstanding women are recognized for their achievements and contributions to the community. To recognize a woman in our community, submit a nomination form by Thursday, February 20.

Visit a57.asmdc.org/distinguished-women-year for the online submission form and more information.
